Zella Blackley honored on her 90th birthday

Zella Davis Blackley is to be honored on her 90th birthday by her family who are planning an Open House Birthday Party for her at the Blackley residence at 293 North 1st North in Heber City from 2 until 6pm Sunday, July 8, 1979. Family and friends are cordially invited.

Zella was born in Heber to William N. and Elizabeth Cummings Davis at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis on July 8, 1889. This home has remained in the Davis Family until it was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Swain, located at 212 West 2nd North.

Mrs. Blackley is a life long resident of the valley. On Sept. 1, 1908, Zella Davis and George Blackley were married. They established their home there that their four sons Rex, Emmitt, Don and Dee, were born. When the boys were still young, George and Zella purchased the home of Mrs. Condon and it is here that the Blackleys have lived since.

Rex is a resident of Heber City; Emmitt and Lucile live in Ogden; Don and LaRue live in Oak Harbor, Washington.

Zella is the grandmother of eight grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren.

Zella is one of the great ladies of Heber Valley and she is loved by all who know her.

Do call at the home and help her and her family celebrate her day. She will be happy and so will you.

The family request gifts please.

93rd Birthday

Zella Davis Blackly will celebrate her 93rd birthday, Thursday, July 8th. She was born in 1889 to Wm. H. Davis and Elizabeth Cummings at the Wm. Davis home at 212 W. 200 N. which Jay Swain and wife now own.

During her early life she lived at Elkhorn on a ranch which the Davis family purchased. On September 1, 1808 she married George A. Blackly and they lived on the ranch and helped run it. They had 4 boys; Rex (who lives with his mother), Emmett, Ogden, and Don and DeMar (both deceased).

When the boys were old enough to attend school, the Blacklys purchased a home at 293 N. 100 E. across the road from the old North School, which Zella still occupies. Mr. Blackly died August 21, 1951.

After Mr. Davis died, Zella's mother sold the ranch and built a new home across the street from Zella's home. You could see Zella crossing the road any time of the day to visit with her mother or to just see if she was OK. They spent 17 enjoyable years together before Mrs. Davis died in 1959.

Zella was a very faithful worker in the Primary organization of the LDS Church. She served as a teacher, ward president, and stake board member. She was a member of the Wasatch County Daughters of the Utah Pioneers in 1958 when they published their book, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains". She worked in Lydia Hausey's Rest Home for 16 years, often attending to the needs of those who were younger than she.

Anyone who knows Zella can testify to her perfection as an immaculate housekeeper and cook, especially her pie making. She is such a cheerful person, a joy to visit and she loves to live in Heber City and welcomes a visit from her many friends.

beautiful mountains and valleys.
Chairman for this year is Wayne McDonald, who says that he hopes the weather will be good, since it is the only thing that would not be prepared ahead of time.

Each of the committee members present explained the final steps in their different organizations, attempting to finalize all the loose ends.
